

CONTENTS

Preface	5
KIERKEGAARD'S AUTHORSHIP AND RECONSIDERATION OF THE CONCEPT OF SUBJECT
E.F. Mooney What is 'An Existential Contribution'?.....	6
T. Aylat-Yaguri Existential Dimensions in Kierkegaard's Perception of Self	19
T. Shchytsova Kierkegaard's Existential Therapy and the Problem of the Subject	29
EXISTENCE AND/AS THE RELIGIOUS
H. Ruin Anxious Spirits – Pneumatology in Heidegger, Paul, and Kierkegaard	39
R. Šerpytytė Religious Wiederholung : Søren Kierkegaard and Giorgio Agamben	53
A.L. Nielsen Existential Practice: Relating to the Infinite.....	68
J. Marek Between Abstraction and Theology. On the Heritage of Kierkegaard's Project of the Subjective Thinker in K. Jaspers and M. Heidegger.....	78
FROM SELF TO THE OTHER(S)
B. Liebsch "Othered" Existence. Thoughts on Søren Kierkegaard, Georg Simmel and Emmanuel Levinas' Diachrony and Representation (1982) in a Political Perspective	88

M. Fox-Muraton	Death, Solitude, and Being-With	107
V. Vevere	Intersubjectivity or Interexistentiality? Kierkegaard's Conception of Existential Communication.....	123
SINGLE INDIVIDUAL AND/IN THERAPY
A. Holzhey-Kunz	"As the history of the race moves on, the individual begins constantly anew" The Relevance of Kierkegaard's Concept of the Single Individual for Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy.....	138
K. Schneider	My Journey with Kierkegaard: From the Paradoxical Self to the Polarized Mind.....	153
D. Puidokiene	The Healing Relationship for Women
J. Perttula	in Prostitution.....	159
Call for papers.....		173
Instructions for authors		174